

Precinct plan

Macedon Ranges Council has agreed to investigate a Hanging Rock precinct plan that will take in private properties and the East Paddock.

The proposed plan would aim to protect the area from over development in the future, ensuring its biosecurity for wildlife corridors, and maintaining current leisure uses.

“It would be similar in characteristic to a heritage precinct plan but this one is an out of the box environmental precinct plan,” Cr John Letchford explained.

Midland Express
Tuesday, September 2, 2014